

Process

Plaza Analysis

Lakefront Zoning

Shape Study

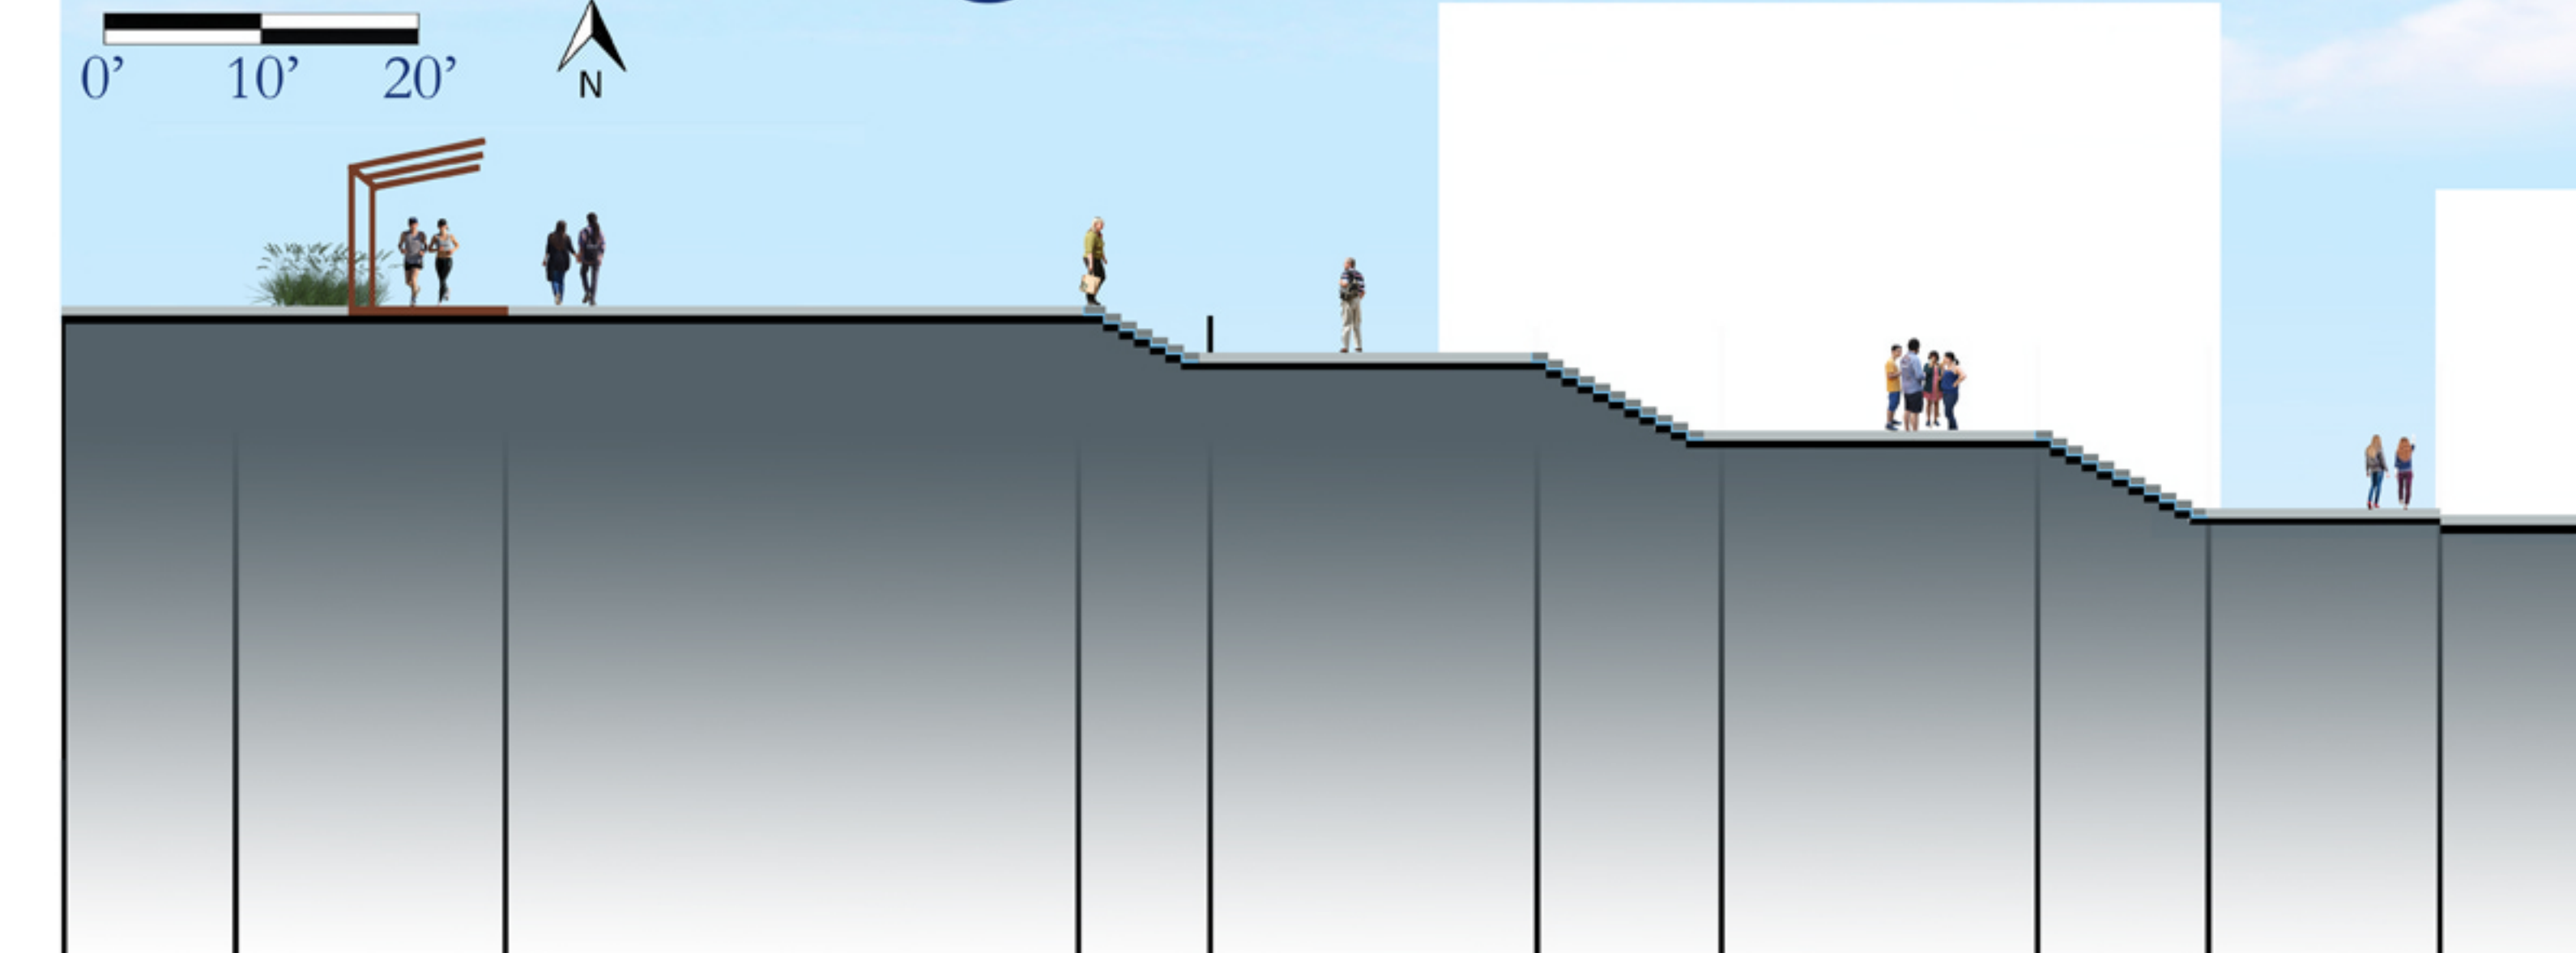

Lake Kittamaqundi

Our goal for this project was to use the lakefront plaza to highlight stormwater as an amenity for Columbia rather than a burden. The space holds large crowds but also provides a calming space to retreat to for smaller groups or individuals.

Our design enhances connections around the entire lake and encourages use year-round. This space is a cohesive extension of the Columbia Town Center.

Section through Main Plaza

Precedents

